Qualifi Level 7 Diploma in Hospitality and Tourism Management

Course Overview

The Level 7 Diploma in Hospitality and Tourism Management programme has been designed to provide learners with an advanced qualification that supports their development as managers within the tourism and hospitality industry through a lifelong-learning orientation.

Learners are able to critically analyse and evaluate contemporary and foundational knowledge and theories to use these to propose solutions into complex management problems within the tourism and hospitality industry.

The overall structure of the course is based on four units that cover a number of topics relating to learning outcomes.

Mandatory Units

- Marketing Approaches in Hospitality and Tourism
- Strategic Planning Facets in Hospitality and Tourism
- Tourism Policy in International Context and Development
- The Culture and Society in Tourism

Progression Pathways

Upon completing this Level 7 diploma, learners can join a university partner to complete a dissertation to then receive a full master's degree.

Learners can also step directly into employment in an associated profession or progress to the Qualifi Level 8 Diploma in Strategic Management and Leadership.

Entry Requirements

Learners will be expected to hold a Level 6 qualification or a first degree. In certain circumstances, managers with considerable experience but no formal qualifications may be considered.

"I'm currently studying for my MBA Top-Up at Anglia Ruskin University. This is because I was able to gain a good understanding of business strategy and research through my Qualifi Level 7 Diploma, that I completed at Executive Japan."

Keiichi Suyama

Career Opportunities

Primary areas of employment include:

- Resort Manager
- Restaurant Manager
- Event Manager
- Wedding Coordinator
