About QUALIFI

QUALIFI is recognised and regulated by Ofqual (Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulator). Our Ofqual reference number is RN5160. Ofqual regulates qualifications, examinations, and assessments in England.

As an Ofqual recognised Awarding Organisation, QUALIFI is required to carry out external quality assurance to ensure that centres approved for the delivery and assessment of QUALIFI's qualifications meet the required standards.

Why Choose QUALIFI Qualifications?

QUALIFI qualifications aim to support learners to develop the necessary knowledge, skills and understanding to support their professional development within their chosen career and or to provide opportunities for progression to further study.

Our qualifications provide opportunities for learners to:

- apply analytical and evaluative thinking skills
- develop and encourage problem solving and creativity to tackle problems and challenges
- exercise judgement and take responsibility for decisions and actions
- develop the ability to recognise and reflect on personal learning and improve their personal, social, and other transferable skills.

Support for the Qualification Development

During the development of this qualification QUALIFI consults with a range of employers, providers, and existing centres where applicable, to ensure rigor, validity, and demand for the qualification and to ensure that the development considers the potential learner audience for the qualification and assessment methods.

Equality and Diversity

QUALIFI's qualifications are developed to be accessible to all learners who are capable of attaining the required standard. QUALIFI promotes equality and diversity across aspects of the qualification process and centres are required to implement the same standards of equal opportunities and ensure teaching and learning are free from any barriers that may restrict access and progression.

Learners with any specific learning need should discuss this in the first instance with their approved centre who will refer to QUALIFI's Reasonable Adjustment and Special Consideration Policy.

Qualification Title and Accreditation Number

This qualification has been accredited to the Regulated Qualification Framework (RQF) and has its own unique Qualification Accreditation Number (QAN). This number will appear on the learner's final certification document. Each unit with the qualification has its own RQF code. The QAN for this qualification is as follows:

QUALIFI Level 4 Certificate in Business Management (601/6048/2)

QUALIFI Level 5 Diploma in Business Management (601/6049/4)

QUALIFI Level 5 Diploma in Business Enterprise (601/6050/0)

QUALIFI Level 5 Extended Diploma in Business Management (610/1675/5)

Qualification Aims and Learning Outcomes

The Qualifications have been created to develop and reward the business managers of today and the future, and to continue to bring recognition and professionalism to the management sectors.

We hope that centres and learners take the opportunity to learn a great deal from these programmes that will provide relevant new skills and qualities.

It is envisaged that these programmes will encourage both academic and professional development so that you learners move forward to realise not just their own potential but also that of organisations across a broad range of sectors.

All Diplomas are accredited at level 4 and level 5. Each qualification has a total of 120 credits. Completing the Extended Diploma has a value of 240 credits. This is equivalent to a Foundation Degree and as such allows access to the final year at one of our University partners for a related Honours Degree. Learners who do not complete Extended Diploma but achieve a minimum of 120 credits at Level 4 will be awarded the QUALIFI Level 4 Certificate in Business Management (601/6048/2)

Aims of the qualifications

The qualifications offered provide the opportunity for individuals to forge a career in business by seeking a greater knowledge and understanding industry, and to support the individual's development into senior positions. The course aims for the following:

1. To enable Learners to apply analytical and evaluative techniques to business in private and public sectors
2. To enhance analytical and evaluative skills relating to business across a number of industries
3. To develop the Learner's ability to recognise and reflect on the process of personal learning and development which facilitates the enhancement of key personal, sociable and other transferable skills
4. To encourage the Learner's self-reflection, analytical, intellectual and transferable skills

Overall Learning Outcomes

The overall learning outcomes for the qualifications are:

1. To understand and apply the principles of leadership in a business environment
2. Review and apply the principles of business management within industry
3. To understand and apply the principles of management in a specific environment
4. To improve the employability of learners by allowing them to explore the relationship between management theories and their practical application in the business world.
5. Analyse problem solving techniques specific to business and industry
6. Select, collate, review and analyse information from a wide range of sources
7. Effectively use verbal and communication skills
8. Work independently and as part of a team
9. Manage one's own personal development and growth

These are the overall learning outcomes in line with foundation degree equivalences. The learning outcomes for each unit are identified in Appendix 1 within the unit descriptors.

The learning outcomes and assessment criteria for each unit are outlined in the Unit Specifications.

Delivering the Qualification

External Quality Assurance Arrangements

All centres are required to complete an approval process to be recognised as an approved centre. Centres must have the ability to support learners. Centres must commit to working with QUALIFI and its team of External Quality Assurers (EQAs). Approved Centres are required to have in place qualified and experienced tutors, all tutors are required to undertake regular continued professional development (CPD).

Approved centres will be monitored by QUALIFI External Quality Assurers (EQAs) to ensure compliance with QUALIFI requirements and to ensure that learners are provided with appropriate learning opportunities, guidance, and formative assessment.

QUALIFI's guidance relating to invigilation, preventing plagiarism and collusion will apply to centres.

QUALIFI, unless otherwise agreed:

- sets all assessments;
- moderates' assessments prior to certification;
- awards the final mark and issues certificates.

Learner Induction and Registration

Approved Centres should ensure all learners receive a full induction to their study programme and the requirements of the qualification and its assessment.

All learners should expect to be issued with the course handbook, a timetable and meet with their personal tutor and fellow learners. Centres should assess learners carefully to ensure that they are able to meet the requirements qualification and that if applicable appropriate pathways or optional units are selected to meet the learner's progression requirements.

Centres should check the qualification structures and unit combinations carefully when advising learners. Centres will need to ensure that learners have access to a full range of information, advice, and guidance to support them in making the necessary qualification and unit choices. During recruitment, approved centres need to provide learners with accurate information on the title and focus of the qualification for which they are studying.

All learners must be registered with QUALIFI within the deadlines outlined in the QUALIFI Registration, Results and Certification Policy and Procedure.

Entry Criteria

Approved Centres are responsible for reviewing and making decisions as to the applicant's ability to complete the learning programme successfully and meet the demands of the qualification. The initial assessment by the centre, will need to consider the support that is readily available or can be made available to meet individual learner needs as appropriate.

The qualification has been designed to be accessible without artificial barriers that restrict access, for this qualification applicants must be aged 18 or over. It is envisaged that learners entering the Level 4 Diploma will have a Level 3 qualification. Learners entering the Level 5 Diploma will have a Level 4 qualification.

In the case of applicants whose first language is not English, then IELTS 6 (or equivalent) is required. International qualifications will be checked for appropriate enrolment to UK higher education postgraduate programmes where applicable. The applicants are normally required to produce two supporting references, at least one of which should preferably be academic.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a method of assessment (leading to the award of credit) that considers whether learners can demonstrate that they can meet the assessment requirements for a unit through knowledge, understanding or skills they already possess, and so do not need to develop through a course of learning.

QUALIFI encourages centres to recognise learners' previous achievements and experiences whether at work, home or at leisure, as well as in the classroom. RPL provides a route for the recognition of the achievements resulting from continuous learning. RPL enables recognition of achievement from a range of activities using any valid assessment methodology. Provided that the assessment requirements of a given unit or qualification have been met, the use of RPL is acceptable for accrediting a unit, units, or a whole qualification.

Evidence of learning must be valid and reliable. For full guidance on RPL please refer to QUALIFI's Recognition of Prior Learning Policy.

Data Protection

All personal information obtained from learners and other sources in connection with studies will be held securely and will be used during the course and after they leave the course for a variety of purposes and may be made available to our regulators. These should be all explained during the enrolment process at the commencement of learner studies. If learners or centres would like a more detailed explanation of the partner and QUALIFI policies on the use and disclosure of personal information, please contact QUALIFI via email support@QUALIFI-international.com

Learner Voice

Learners can play an important part in improving the quality through the feedback they give. In addition to the on-going discussion with the course team throughout the year, centres will have a range of mechanisms for learners to feed back about their experience of teaching and learning.

Professional Development and Training for Centres

QUALIFI support its approved centres with training related to our qualifications. This support is available through a choice of training options offered through publications or through customised training at your centre.

The support we offer focuses on a range of issues including:

- planning for the delivery of a new programme
- planning for assessment and grading
- developing effective assignments
- building your team and teamwork skills
- developing learner-centred learning and teaching approaches
- building in effective and efficient quality assurance systems.

Please contact us for further information.

Progression and Links to other QUALIFI Programmes

Completing the QUALIFI Level 4 Diploma will enable learners to progress to:

- QUALIFI Level 5 Diploma in related areas.
- Bachelor's degree second year.
- Employment in an associated profession.

Completing the QUALIFI Level 5 Diplomas will enable learners to progress to:

- QUALIFI Level 6 Diploma in related areas.
- Bachelor's degree final year.
- Employment in an associated profession.

University exemptions

QUALIFI has exemptions for learners to progress to a final year of an Honours degree at a number of Universities.

The pathways are an indication of the learner's progress towards a University degree and is based on the University's review of QUALIFI's learning programmes and outcomes. Further information is available here <http://www.QUALIFI.net/learning-pathways/>

Qualification Structure and Requirements

Credits and Total Qualification Time (TQT)

All Diplomas are made up of 120 credits which equates to 1200 hours of TQT and include 480 hours of GLH.

Total Qualification Time (TQT): is an estimate of the total amount of time that could reasonably be expected to be required for a learner to achieve and demonstrate the achievement of the level of attainment necessary for the award of a qualification.

Examples of activities that can contribute to Total Qualification Time include: guided learning, independent and unsupervised research/learning, unsupervised compilation of a portfolio of work experience, unsupervised e-learning, unsupervised e-assessment, unsupervised coursework, watching a prerecorded podcast or webinar, unsupervised work-based learning.

Guided Learning Hours (GLH): are defined as the time when a tutor is present to give specific guidance towards the learning aim being studied on a programme. This definition includes lectures, tutorials, and supervised study in, for example, open learning centres and learning workshops, live webinars, telephone tutorials or other forms of e-learning supervised by a tutor in real time. Guided learning includes any supervised assessment activity; this includes invigilated examination and observed assessment and observed work-based practice.

Achievement Requirements

Learners must demonstrate they have met all assessment criteria for all units to achieve this qualification. QUALIFI will issue certificates to all successful learners via their registered centres.

Awarding Classification/Grading

This qualification grading is: Pass/Fail.

All units will be internally assessed through written assignment, internally marked by the QUALIFI approved centre and subject to external quality assurance by QUALIFI.

Assessment Strategy and Methods

QUALIFI will provide written assessment tasks for each Unit of this qualification. These tasks will address all Learning Outcomes and related Assessment Criteria, all of which must be demonstrated/passed in order to achieve the qualification.

The tasks will enable learners to draw on 'work-related' information and/or examples wherever possible. Some assessment tasks will contain a practical assignment which will require observation by an assessor, see Assessment Guidance for further information.

The assessment tasks will require learners to draw on real organisational information or case studies to illustrate their answers. To support this activity during the programme of learning, centres are required to make sure that they include case studies of relevant organisations and, wherever possible, encourage learners to draw on work-place opportunities to undertake research and investigation to support their learning.

QUALIFI provide a Candidate Workbook for each unit that Learners should use to record their answers and/or cross-reference any supporting evidence relating to a practical task. Approved centres should request a copy of the assessment workbook.

Learner assessments will be internally marked by the Approved Centre and will be subject to external moderation by QUALIFI prior to certification.

Unit Specifications

Bus1.1: Communication in an Organisation

Unit code: D/507/1581

RQF level: 4

Overview

This unit is divided into three parts and examines Communications at an organisational level, interpersonal communications and managing internal and external communications.

Effective communications are vital to the success of any organisation, to ensure understanding, involvement and commitment to organisational policies and procedures.

Organisations today often need to change their policies and procedures to survive in the developing local and global economies. It is important for managers to realise the importance of sound communication practice and systems to ensure the effective development and dissemination of new ideas and decisions for change.

This unit will help managers explore the links between good communications and the development of workforce understanding and commitment to change by considering what is meant by good communications practice. It will then help them look at their communication skills as well as how to improve links between their team, other parts of the organisation and beyond.

Unit Aims

The unit aims to develop the learner's awareness of organisational, personal, team and external communications. Communication practices, systems, styles and tools are explored and how they support individual and group's commitment to organisations and their objectives.

Interpersonal communication with an emphasis on analysing the learner's own personal style to empower and improve personal communication skills is central to the unit. For this purpose, learners should obtain feedback on their input at meetings, presentations, interviews and in discussions with peers and tutors.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Analyse communications in organisations.	1.1 Understand the importance of effective communications in organisations. 1.2 Identify and explain communication practices and systems that allow organisation policy and procedures to be understood and followed; and how ideas, new initiatives and developments can be shared. 1.3 Evaluate how workforce commitment to organisational change can be achieved using different communication practices. 1.4 Analyse communication barriers and weaknesses and remedies to such problems.
2. Understand and develop personal interpersonal communications.	2.1 Explain interpersonal communications and communication styles. 2.2 Show awareness of personal interpersonal communication skills and provide evidence of your skills including presentation style, meetings management and networking. 2.3 Apply approaches to improve personal communication style.
3. Evaluate the management of internal and external workplace communications.	3.1 Identify and explain how management can support teams and other groups, departments or sections within and outside an organisation to communicate effectively. 3.2 Investigate organisational practices that support internal and external workplace communications. 3.3 Evaluate communication tools, approaches and practices that support effective internal and external communications. 3.4 Plan improvements in workplace communications and implement the plan.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

The emphasis for this unit must ensure that learners have opportunities not only to develop understanding and suggest improvements but also to practice and gain feedback on their own personal communications skills. Therefore, the unit should include feedback from meetings, presentations, interviews, discussions and peer as well as tutors.

Further emphasis on active learning is required and consequently the extent of pure input sessions should be kept to a minimum.

Bus1.2: Leadership and the Organisation

Unit code: H/507/1582

RQF level: 4

Overview

This unit looks at the development of practical leadership skills at a non-strategic level within the rapidly changing working environment.

The unit provides an opportunity for learners to explore in depth the attributes and skills of successful leaders. Learners will also be able to consider how some of the leadership theories and models can be applied to specific situations and to learn how leadership skills can be developed.

The unit draws on a selection of established principles and on more recent work. It seeks to consider their relevance to specific working situations.

Unit Aims

Through a study of leadership styles, current theory and models learners will gain an appreciation of leadership skills and their importance at all levels in organisations and for specific purposes.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Evaluate the impact of different leadership qualities and skills in organisations.	1.1 Identify different skills and characteristics of successful leaders. 1.2 Assess how different leadership styles can influence an organisation.

Bus1.3: Financial Awareness

Unit code: M/507/1584

RQF level: 4

Overview

This unit is designed to introduce learners to the nature, role and importance of financial information in organisations from a managerial perspective. Learners will have the opportunity to look at communication and interpretation of financial information for managing organisations, its regulation and structuring and use in decision making, together with the principles of accounting, standards expected, and concepts and conventions that influence the presentation of financial information.

Learners will, through the examination of financial information, learn about the important issues relating to the measurement of efficiency, profitability and solvency, and the different demands on organisations made by different stakeholders. They will also explore the extent to which external confidence is determined by financial performance.

Learners will examine how financial information can be interpreted, analysed and evaluated, how costs in an organisation can be monitored and controlled, and how the concept of contribution aids decision making.

Unit Aims

The overriding aim of the unit is to provide the learner with the necessary knowledge to be able to critically evaluate the financial systems, processes and procedures in their own organisations.

Learners will gain understanding of accounting conventions, appreciate measurement for efficiency, profitability and solvency, and the different demands made by different stakeholders. Learners will gain understanding of financial commentary.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Explore the nature and use of financial information.	1.1 Discuss the need for financial information, its purpose, limitations and the main stakeholders interested in the information.

	1.2 Identify accounting arrangements and conventions used by organisations.
2. Investigate the principles and standards used to produce accounting and financial information.	2.1 Explain how accounting frameworks and regulation influence accounting and financial arrangements. 1.2 Explain the uses of published financial information. 2.3 Explain how an organisation uses management accounting practices.
3. Examine financial commentary that interprets and analyses published financial information.	3.1 Explain the main items commented on and explain their importance. 3.2. Identify trends in published accounting information.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

This unit will involve the student engaging in a process of research on an independent and group basis into the subject matter. The unit tutors will provide initial support sessions in a workshop and will be available for subsequent support.

Bus1.4: Managing Change

Unit code: A/507/1586

RQF level: 4

Overview

Management has often been defined as ‘creating change through people’ and this unit encourages learners to adopt this approach to change. It is designed for managers or potential managers working at first line or operational levels who are seeking to change ongoing systems and processes in the workplace.

Learners will gain the realisation that it is only through the people that they work with that change can become successful.

This unit will allow learners to take a problem solving approach, initially defining issues and then looking at options, before selecting an appropriate route to change.

Finally, the unit looks at planning for implementation and evaluation of the change itself. There will be an emphasis on involving those directly affected, to gain their experience and knowledge as well as their commitment to, and ownership of, the change itself.

Throughout the unit, importance will be placed the need to manage and control the change process by effective monitoring and evaluation. Various change models will be used as the basis of activity.

Unit Aims

The aim of this model is to introduce different models and practices of change management.

The model further aims to help Learners to develop an understanding of the issues and practices involved in the management of change and those activities that contribute to positive organisational change. Learners are encouraged to develop and use their problem solving skills.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

On successful completion of this unit a student will be able to:

Bus1.5: Business Operations

Unit code: F/507/1587

RQF level: 4

Overview

This unit focuses upon the effective and efficient planning and management of work activities. It provides learners with the knowledge and skills to design, implement and change operational plans to improve effectiveness and efficiency, and to design and monitor appropriate systems to ensure quality of the products and services.

Learners may investigate their own organisation and their role within it. Their research will involve evaluating the importance of business processes in delivering outcomes based on business goals and objectives, establishing customer requirements and developing and implementing operational plans to meet them.

This will include the identification of resources needed, the planning and allocation of appropriate work activities, the setting and monitoring of performance measures and quality standards, and then taking appropriate action or making suitable recommendations to solve problems at work and managing the resulting change.

Consideration will be given throughout the unit to legal, regulatory and ethical requirements, particularly to the maintenance of health and safety.

Learners will discover that the objectives of successful managers are largely achieved through others and that the involvement of teams, peers and individuals is crucial to the efficient and effective management of activities.

Unit Aims

This unit aims to enable learners to develop an understanding of the issues relating to the management of activities with a particular focus on problem solving.

The unit provides a basis for understanding how different organisations are structured and controlled, and the importance of business goals and objectives. The workings and operations of the organisation are examined and Learners are required to develop and deliver operational plans.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment Criteria Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Examine the importance of business processes in delivering business goals and objectives.	1.1 Identify and evaluate organisational functions, their main processes and the relationships between the functions. 1.2 Review methods and approaches for mapping organisational processes.
2. Investigate how business goals and objectives affect business operations.	2.1 Explain the effect of organisation mission, aims and objectives on the structure and culture of an organisation. 2.2 Analyse different approaches to goal setting for organisations. 2.3 Set SMART objectives.
3. Develop and implement plans for an operational area.	3.1 Develop and introduce plans that support the achievement of organisational goals and objectives. 3.2. Use SMART objectives. 3.3 Monitor and control plans to make sure objectives are achieved.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

This unit will involve the student engaging in a process of research on an independent and group basis into the subject matter. The unit tutors will provide initial support sessions in a workshop and will be available for subsequent support.

Bus1.6: Developing Teams

Unit code: J/507/1588

RQF level: 4

Overview

This unit focuses on building, developing and supporting teams to enable them to achieve their goals and objectives. Learners must identify the skills and potential of team members while providing opportunities for them to gain new skills and experiences.

Learners will evaluate team roles and their importance when allocating team members to appropriate tasks in order to achieve objectives.

A key factor in a winning team is the team leader. Learners will have the opportunity to examine the qualities required of an effective leader to ensure that tasks are achieved, while building and developing the team and individuals within it.

This unit also focuses on methods for monitoring team performance and approaches for handling poor performance and conflict.

Unit Aims

The unit focuses on building, developing and supporting teams to enable them to achieve their goals and objectives. Learners will identify the skills and potential of teams and individuals.

Opportunities for teams to develop, gaining new skills and experiences and ways to evaluate and improve their performance are important to the unit too.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Analyse the characteristics of teams.	1.1 Identify the attributes of a successful team. 1.2 Review theoretical models and approaches used to evaluate teams.
2. Evaluate methods for team development.	2.1 Assess motivational factors affecting different teams.

	2.2 Evaluate relevant theory.
3. Evaluate methods of setting team objectives, and monitoring and evaluating team performance.	3.1 Identify different approaches to setting team objectives and evaluating team performance. 3.2. Produce recommendations on how to improve team performance.

Bus2.1: Responding to the Changing Business Environment

Unit code: R/507/1612

RQF level: 5

Overview

The three key themes to this unit examine the socio-economic environment, the way in which markets operate and the relationship between business and governments.

The central theme to the unit is the changing roles that exist between business, government and their citizens that create both opportunities and threats for the modern organisation. By understanding the organisational impact of the trends, managers can respond positively to a changing socio-economic environment.

The unit also looks at the external business environment and the different ways that organisations respond to changes.

Unit Aims

The aim of the unit is to introduce the learner to a number of dynamic factors that affect how an organisation operates and the change in management that is required. By understanding how relationships between public and private sector organisations are affected by socio-economic factors the learner will be better placed to manage that relationship.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Evaluate and analyse the factors that influence business and the responses that can be deployed to manage these factors.	1.1 Identify and make use of different approaches to understanding the macro and micro environments for business. 1.2 Review business resources and external factors and trends to identify where business performance could be positively or negatively affected. 1.3 Recommend responses to external factors and trends.

2. Appreciate how an integrated approach to understanding the business context and decision making can support business development.	2.1 Identify and prioritise organisational changes to individual businesses that would counteract negative or support positive business environmental factors and trends. 2.2 Use case examples to illustrate the impact of responding to business environmental factors and trends. 2.3 Evaluate the role of management in responding to a changing business environment.
3. Investigate the changing relationship between the private and public sector.	3.1 Explain changes in the relationship between business, government and the public sector. 3.2. Use scenarios and models to illustrate changes in relationships. 3.3 Identify opportunities that may arise due to changes in relationships.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

Working in Virtual Groups and using shared space on the Learning Management systems learners will be expected to choose an organisation and apply the course material to understand the impact of changes in the business environment to the performance of the business.

Bus2.2: Effective Decision Making

Unit code: Y/507/1613

RQF level: 5

Overview

The unit will look at the different ways that decisions are taking by companies by exploring approaches to decision making, implementing decisions and the way in which knowledge can be used within organisations.

With the growth of IT and customisation, few decisions are straightforward enough for managers to rely on the answers that have been successful in past years. To remain competitive, organisations need to develop decision-making processes that use all the current information and knowledge available in the workplace, workforce and beyond.

Consequently, today's decision making becomes more of a problem-solving process.

In addition, increasing workforce empowerment and expectation means that the decision-making process for competitive organisations needs to be a much more participative process. Otherwise, management will not gain the information and knowledge they need and will also lose the commitment required to ensure decisions taken become effective.

So, while the act of decision taking effectively remains with the manager responsible, the process of decision making needs to involve all the stakeholders within the managers' immediate workplace and beyond. This ensures that the decision taken is owned by all whom have to work with it.

Unit Aims

The unit aims to equip the learner with the means to manage the process of decision-making rather than the outcome or decision itself. By recognising methods of decision taking, the learner can stress the need for greater participation of stakeholders to ensure pro-activity and innovation.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment Criteria Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Review relevant issues that are important to making business decisions.	1.1 Review several different business issues where decisions are needed and analyse stakeholder needs and expectations for each case. 1.2 Research and review all relevant information and knowledge on the business issues where decisions are needed.
2. Explore approaches to the decision-making process and how to improve approach.	2.1 Evaluate processes for obtaining relevant information on business issues for given organisations and identify where any strengths or weaknesses in approach exists. 2.2 Take decisions based upon information gained, provide justifications and say how the decision should be disseminated. 2.3 Make recommendations for improvements to the decision making process and make sure there is relevant participation in the process.
3. Recommend approaches to improve decision making.	3.1 Plan for, communicate and oversee new approaches to decision making. 3.2. Identify and develop measures to allow the effectiveness of the decision making process to be evaluated.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

This unit will involve the student engaging in a process of research on an independent and group basis into the subject matter. The unit tutors will provide initial support sessions in a workshop and will be available for subsequent support.

Bus2.3: Business Development

Unit code: D/507/1614

RQF level: 5

Overview

The unit will allow for learners to work in a team to investigate new business formats and a feasibility assessment for a potential knowledge-based product or service opportunity identified by the team. This might be undertaken for a new income stream within an existing business or for a new enterprise.

The core unit material will focus on Refining an Idea, Research and Presenting the Plan.

All learners will be involved with refining the idea and individual learners will be responsible for doing market research, building a final plan and creating an operational plan.

Unit Aims

The aim of this unit is to provide the Learner with the knowledge and skills to research a market and plan a development strategy such as the launch of a new business model, new enterprise, product or service line. Learners will need to fully develop and pitch their business development strategy

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Analyse the role that planning has in developing new business streams.	1.1 Use the TOWS matrix to identify a response to a future opportunity or threat. 1.2 Identify the business planning links between marketing, finance, HR and operations.
2. Conduct research into demand and assess market potential.	2.1 Produce an 'opportunities matrix' that supports strategy development and responses to external threats. 2.2 Use primary and secondary research to define the size of an opportunity. 2.3 Identify both tangible and intangible resources that exist and those required to support a development strategy.

3. Prepare a business model and present a business sales plan.	3.1 Develop a business model to support a development strategy. 3.2. Produce sales measures and key success factors. 3.3 Prepare and deliver a pitch to raise support and finance for a development strategy. 3.4 Take feedback on their development strategy and make improvements.

Bus2.4: Business Models and Growing Organisations

Unit code: H/507/1615

RQF level: 5

Overview

The unit is designed to help learners understand what is expected from them in working for a growing organisation.

The final three units explore the relationship between enterprising behaviour and business success, the different ways in which firms can grow and the different types of business that they might be expected to work in.

Unit Aims

To introduce the concept of working for and managing creatively within a smaller growth organisation.

This unit examines how the small business grows, reasons for success and how best to manage available growth options. This will give the learner a greater understanding of fast growth organisations in both private and social sectors of the economy.

Learners will develop skills to support their ability to understand business strategy and development with an emphasis on business growth.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Examine growth options and the resource implications on organisation structures and operations.	1.1 Illustrate the differences between strategy and a plan. 1.2 Provide ideas and examples of different approaches to delivering business growth. 1.3 Analyse the impact and resource requirements likely for growth strategies in a range of organisations.
2. Develop an appreciation of different business models and how performance	2.1 Analyse different business models and their revenue streams.

and success of ventures may be evaluated.	2.2 Identify and recommend ways in which business performance can be measured and new ventures evaluated. 2.3 Provide examples of innovation in businesses and comment on their success.
3. Evaluate environmental scanning and how growth options may be analysed.	3.1 Use environmental scanning as a tool to identify business opportunities. 3.2. Analyse businesses that have successfully used environmental scanning. 3.3 Provide examples of strategic fit in determining growth options.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

The learners will be expected to show practical output by working through a series of business cases that examine the motivation, the measures of performance and “exit” options for successful business.

These will form the basis of assessing business growth options. The unit tutors will provide initial support sessions in a workshop and will be available for subsequent support.

Bus2.5: Customer Management

Unit code: K/507/1616

RQF level: 5

Overview

This unit is designed to help learners understand the role of customer-centred organisations. The three units are understanding customers, meeting customer need and adding value.

Learners will evaluate best practice and the policies and approaches that result in excellent service and delivery within a contemporary business environment.

Customer Relationship Management (CRM) is now being actively embraced by organisations within most industry sectors. Furthermore, customer expectations are changing with the result that customer relationships are becoming increasingly more complex to manage.

This unit analyses how businesses have responded by looking after their customer base in new and more cost effective ways.

Unit Aims

The aim of the unit is to provide Learners with understanding and insight into customer behaviour. It will develop skills and Learners will use tools and practices an organisation can use to retain and improve customer retention and relationships.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Examine the different ways that organisations deal with their customers.	1.1 Analyse customer behaviour and identify patterns and differences in approach. 1.2 Segment customers and identify target groups.
2. Develop skills and practices that will support customers retention.	2.1 Appraise CRM (customer relationship management) and customer relationship marketing activities. 2.2 Explain and provide examples of customer retention practices for different industries.

	2.3 Create examples that demonstrate the concept of 'adding value' to customers.
3. Explore and learn from examples of customer centered organisations and the benefits of such an approach.	3.1 Research customer centres organisations across different industries and evaluate their approaches 3.2. Create recommendations for an organisation known by the Learner for improving its approach to customers.

Teaching and Learning Strategy

This unit will involve the student engaging in a process of research on an independent and group basis into the subject matter. The unit tutors will provide initial support sessions in a workshop and will be available for subsequent support.

The learners will work on interactive exercises which simulate contact with customers. They will be expected to deal with “difficult customers” and be able to respond to complaints. As well as managing this process they will be expected to identify new market opportunities based on changing customers.

Bus2.6: Risk Management and Organisations

Unit code: T/507/1618

RQF level: 5

Overview

This unit prepares learners for working in a commercial environment by providing an insight into the different risk profiles from both an organisation's and an individual's perspectives. The three units are understanding business risk, managing risk and innovation and creativity.

The aim is to provide learners with an understanding of what makes an effective organisation in balancing out opportunity with change.

Unit Aims

This unit will involve the Learner developing risk profiles and identifying risk management strategies for selected case studies. These will be available on-line as used as a means to illustrate the different ways organisations approach change. The course material will be closely linked with creativity and innovation.

Learning Outcomes and Assessment Criteria

Learning Outcomes	Assessment Criteria
When awarded credit for this unit, a learner will:	Assessment of this learning outcome will require a learner to demonstrate that they can:
1. Review organisations risk tolerance in different environments.	1.1 Identify and evaluate different business environments and the likely risks of those environments. 1.2 Provide examples of organisation's tolerance to risk taking and evaluate how organisations can measure tolerance.
2. Develop skills to identify and assess the risk profiles of organisations.	2.1 Produce a risk profile for an organisation. 2.2 Review and comment on risk profiles of organisations in different industries. 2.3 Discuss enterprise wide risk and the benefits and drawbacks of such an approach.

3. Investigate how innovation can be used to reduce risk aversion in growing organisations.	3.1 Analyse the possible risks of innovation in an organisation. 3.2. Produce examples of how to manage innovation risk so that innovation can be used to create advantage.

Ent2.1: Entrepreneurship, Enterprise and Creativity

Unit code: A/507/1619

RQF level: 5

Overview

The focus for this unit is to develop understanding of the role of entrepreneurial activity in new venture creation and to explore the different approaches to running a fast growth organisation. A distinction is made between the individual entrepreneur and the role of enterprise and creative thinking as a means of achieving fast growth.

The unit combines the intellectual and practical skills of the learner in the understanding and critical evaluation of the entrepreneurial process, and its emerging role in new business formation and growth. It combines the twin concepts of entrepreneurship with the management of a growing business.

The unit will be of interest to anyone who wishes to manage a growing organisation as distinct from working in a larger corporate business.

Unit Aims

The aim of the unit is to explore how and what affects entrepreneurial and enterprising activity.

Learners will gain insight into different ventures to start to help them explore their own creativity as entrepreneurs. is to explore the personal leadership and management capabilities needed to start and grow a business.
